AND THE LITTLE TYKES WILL GO ON SLAVING

Oscar Heineman's Kindergarten Class of Girl Workers Should Be at Play—But They're Sweating for Rotten Wages—Oscar Wins Point Against Them.

Oscar Heineman runs a place at 2701 Milwaukee av., where hundreds of girls walk back and forth in front of machines that wind and throw silk thread.

If a girl sees a thread broken she jumps for that machine and ties the threads together.

For this work Oscar Heineman buys the cheapest labor on the market, which is girls, and he hires the youngest the law allows. He holds the record in the state of Illinois for the number of girls employed. He has 402 under 16 and 313 over that age. Average pay a week for girls under 16 is $4 and none of the little tikes in the whole works pulls down over $5 a week. That's what the reports of state factory inspectors say.

Well, this Oscar Heineman wins in Judge Courtney's court again this morning. He didn't win a case. But he did get a nolle prosequere.

The air these girls in Heineman's place take into their lungs hasn't got
